

The U.S. Forest Service has closed a section of the Virginia Creeper Trail between White Top and Green Cove stations. Trail users are advised to start their journey downhill from the Green Cove Station until the section is repaired. The Creeper Trail is still open except for the 3-mile section and area bike rental outfitters are still running shuttle service from Abingdon and Damascus to Green Cove Station.